

Matt Handley, M.D.

Panelist at PQC Summit on Cost and Quality:
Confronting the Chronic Care Challenge
Washington, D.C. • March 19, 2008

| Matt Handley is associate medical director, Quality and Informatics, Group Health Cooperative. Dr. Handley is responsible for quality improvement and technology, to create an infrastructure that supports the highest levels of organizational performance. He maintains a primary care practice in Seattle. Dr. Handley has worked with groups nationwide and in New Zealand to develop clinical guideline programs and lectured extensively on topics including evidence-based medicine and implementation of clinical guidelines.

Deleted: ¶

Previously, Dr. Handley was medical director of Health Informatics at Group Health, overseeing the implementation and management of the clinical information system. Group Health has led the country in sharing the EMR with patients, providing for over 95,000 patients. Over 800 clinicians at Group Health participate in secure messaging with their patients. Dr. Handley attended Northwestern University where he studied biomedical engineering and applied mathematics. He received his Doctor of Medicine at the University of California at Davis and completed residency training in family practice at Group Health.